

ANIMAL HEALTH TECHNICIAN SHELTER DEPARTMENT

Actively contribute to our mission of animal protection by ensuring the best health conditions for thousands of animals welcomed at the shelter every year.

Joining us means :

| Be part of a mission that has been making a difference for animals for over 40 years | Join a team full of dedication and a pleasant work environment | Managers close to their teams | Participative and coaching-oriented leadership | Stimulating environment, rich in challenges and experiences | Benefit from a group insurance program that includes a dental component | Working for a completely new & beautifully thought out shelter | Permanent position & Full time (37.5 h) | Variable schedule from Monday to Saturday |

MAIN TASKS

- Carry out examinations of animals received at the shelter
- Vaccinate and administer parasite treatments
- Observe, note and report any signs of specific health problems
- Give treatments and medications prescribed by veterinarians
- Perform grooming tasks such as claw trimming, ear cleaning, etc.
- Euthanize animals when necessary
- Enter all medical examinations and follow-up information into the computer
- Transfer animals to the appropriate rooms
- Answer client calls regarding post-adoption animal health issues

REQUIREMENTS

- Diploma in Animal Health Technology
- Great ease in handling animals
- Have a strong interest for animals and their well-being

DESIRED QUALITIES

- Ability to communicate and work as a team
- Concern for a job well done with professionalism and good ethics
- Good stress management skills
- Good sense of work organization
- Rigorous work and ability to adapt

Take this opportunity to contribute to the cause by sending your resume to emplois@spaestrie.qc.ca. We look forward to meeting you!